If you know the value of a Bank Account, teach your children

A bank acquaintance is a fine thing for a boy, even as a boy, and especially when he is at the point where he begins to know the value of money and is anxious to earn.

Young people who are taught to save become a credit to a community because it makes them ambitious.

Young people will take pride in looking on this institution as their bank, and they have the privilege of coming and going just as much as they wish. Interest paid on savings.

The May Victrola records are now on sale at Markwell's.

Miss Gertrude Palmer entertained a number of her friends at a week-end party at her home.

The "Battle Cry of Peace" one of the greatest motion picture shows of the age, will be at the New Opera House, May 4th.

We have heard much praise of the paper read at the Methodist church on Sunday morning on "Easter Thoughts at Easter-tide," the work of Mrs. Hale the pastor's wife. Many have asked her to have it published.

A mass meeting of high school students was held one day last week to boost for the High School bonds. Speeches were made by a number of students and it was voted unanimously to push for the bonds individually and collectively.

Come to Markwell's music room to hear the new Victrola records. Over 500 records now in stock.

Monday, May 1, will measure the real public spirit and educational interest of the people of Hays. Hays has shown itself enterprising and up-to-date in other respects, will it vote to remain in the country village class with respect to its public school equipment?

Our music room has been arranged for your convenience in hearing Columbia and Victor records.

"Father and the Boys," a splendid comedy, was put on the screen at the New Opera House, Wednesday evening to a fair-sized audience. Mr. Fredorovic is always trying to please his patrons with something new, and the audience certainly enjoyed every minute of the time. It was a most excellent play.

The great drama, "The Battle Cry of Peace," will be put on the screen at New Opera House again in Hays, May 4th. If you have not seen it, it will pay you to go, and if you were present when the play was shown here before, it will pay you to go again as there will more than likely be some added features.

Water colors, water-color brushes, high grade water-color, Charcoal and Poster paper, tube paints and other artists' materials, at the Hays City Drug Store.

There is expected to be a meeting of those who are interested in the new railroad project, from the south, at LaCrosse within the next ten days. Mr. Byers, president and promoter of the road south from Larned will be there to confer with those present. Hays will also be represented by a number of prominent citizens.

C. M. Holmquist returned Wednesday evening from a short visit with friends and relatives at Lindsay. He stopped over during the day at Ellsworth and took in the Odd Fellows meeting. He reports the meeting a great success—ninety-three people were there from Hays. The meeting will be held in Hays in 1917. Why not make Hays the permanent meeting place?

Geo. Klenk who in 1880 was a soldier—a cavalryman—in the United States Army and stationed at Fort Hays was here Thursday, shaking hands with old-time friends. About the only man who remembered him was C. W. Miller. C. W. was running a hardware store at that time and Klenk used to buy ammunition of him. He says Hays has improved wonderfully in the past twenty-five or thirty years. If the gentleman is on earth thirty years hence he will witness still greater improvements.

Mr. L. B. Mead and wife were here from Junction City one day last week looking for a location for a lumber yard. Mr. Mead says that he had taken in all the towns from Salina, west to the state line and also on the Salina branch. He says that they found no town to compare with Hays in any respect, and it is understood that he has an option on several lots for a location for their lumber yard. There is always room for one more and we will be pleased to welcome them.

If you have not seen the "Battle Cry of Peace" be sure to be present at the New Opera House in Hays, May 4th.

Genuine Cucumber Cream softens and whitens the skin, removes tan and freckles. We make the genuine. Hays City Drug Store.

Insure your wheat against hail with the CITIZENS STATE BANK, Hays City, Kansas.

Mr. J. W. Preston who has been forester at the Experiment Station the past five years has resigned his position and will leave Hays in a short time. He has not decided exactly where he will go but perhaps to some city in the eastern or southern part of the state.

Mr. Preston moved to Hays with his family in April 1912, and took charge of the forestry department at the Fort Hays Experiment Station and under his experienced management it has very materially improved. When he took charge the growing stock invoiced less than $300, one year afterward—1913, the sales amounted to $325. In 1914, $670, and in 1915, $1650. Mr. Preston is a thoroughly practical and "nursery-wise" nurseryman and a valuable man in his line of business. The Hays Experiment Station will probably "experiment" a long time with other men before they find as good a man as J. W. Preston.

Last Lyceum Number.

The last number of the Lyceum Course will occur at the Normal auditorium on Friday, May 5th. The entertainment will be given by a Concert company of six people called The Old Home Singers. They will sing popular music. All Lyceum ticket holders can attend without further cost.

The Misses Clara and Lulu Cerney were pleasant callers at the Free Press office Thursday afternoon.

Have you seen E. Burnham's "Panel of Posies," showing "the latest," in coiffures? If not, examine it at our toilet goods counter, and find something new in hair arrangement, to fit your style. Hays City Drug Store.

Lost:—A one-eighth carat diamond ring—Tiffany setting. Finder will please leave at Free Press office.

Horace Murphy and Louis Joseph, two young men from McCracken, were callers at the Free Press office Wednesday.

Don't fail to attend the Virginia Minstrel show which will be in Hays, May 5th. They are said to be top-notchers.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" the greatest drama of the age, will again be put on the screens at the New Opera House in Hays, May 4th.

W. L. Lemon, assistant state accountant, was here last week checking up the Experiment Station and the Fort Hays Normal.

Sand is being hauled for a concrete sidewalk along the south side of Second Street.

Attend the Virginia Minstrel show May 5th. They are a sure cure for the blues and spring fever. You laugh, and laugh, and laugh; and then some more.

Miles Mulroy is at present in Washington, D. C., looking after his chances for the Hays postoffice job.

The Catholic Federation held their annual meeting at Liebenthal, Wednesday. Paul Dinges and a number of other members of the association were present from Hays.

Have you tried our fountain-service? If not, you are missing some of the good things of life.

Banana Splits, Fresh fruit Sundaes, Claret and Loganberry Punch and many other good "eats" and drinks, served early and late. Come in. Hays City Drug Store.

Wednesday of this week, acting Probate Judge B. C. Arnold married a couple from Russell county. The groom was thirty-three years of age and his bride fifteen. The young lady presented a written consent from her mother. Probate Judge F. E. McLain was at Ellsworth attending the Odd Fellows meeting.

Do not forget that the CITIZENS STATE BANK, Hays City, Kansas, writes hail insurance on wheat, oats, barley and corn. Ask any of the many farmers who trusted their hail insurance with us last year, what service they received.

Is your hair thin or falling out? Valuable directions meeting your personal case, given free with each bottle of "Royal Three" hair tonic, which is guaranteed to give satisfaction. Hays City Drug Store.

Lisle McIlhinney, editor of the Gove County Advocate and secretary of the Auto Club of Quinter, has written to Hays telling of the Spring Community Auto run of that city. Hays will be the point visited. The people who have already agreed to come, number 250 and over fifty cars will carry them. May 23rd is the date set. The company will arrive at about 11:00 a. m. and leave after a five hour visit. The Normal School and Station are to be particularly visited. The Hays business men should get busy about some welcoming stunt.

"A rag and a bone and a hank of hair," said Kipling, "makes a woman." Kipling is "off."

Dainty hands, a fine complexion and abundant, glossy locks make the up-to-date woman, and she acquires these by the simple home treatment which accompanies Royal Three Beauty preparations. Sold only at the Hays City Drug Store.

Watch the Children.

One of the most important causes of ill health so prevalent among people of all ages is the indifference of physicians in regard to apparently trivial complaints of children.

A child complains of pain somewhere head, back, chest, abdomen, hips: perhaps leg-ache; does not sleep well, cries out in sleep, or is troubled with Enuresis (incontinence of urine.) The family physician is consulted. Many times he laughs at the mother's anxiety and tells her the child will "outgrow it." That is conclusive evidence that the doctor does not know what is the matter with the child; therefore concludes there is nothing the matter.

One who has made a special study of children and who understands child psychology, knows that the average child with average care will never think of complaining unless there is something the matter.

In fact children go on about their play when grown up people would be in bed. Children often stay up and play long after they should have been having medical attention. Many times the busy mother does not suspect the baby is ill until she finds him lying on the floor or in the yard and upon questioning gets this reply, "I am so tired." This is often the beginning of some serious sickness.

Children never have "growing pains." That is one of the excuses for things not understood. All pain of whatever nature in children is abnormal. It is quite true that some of the complaints of children need not be taken seriously. It also is true that children will recover from diseases which would be fatal to adults.

It must be borne in mind that children are like young plants, very tender and easily injured and stunted in mind and body for life, by some trouble which in childhood seemed of little consequence or importance.

Therefore we should take cognizance of every complaint of childhood no matter how small it may seem and obtain advice of one who understands children. This will be doing only a parent's duty and may save many regrets later.

The first duty in life is to give our children health. If we give them life we must give them the best opportunity within our power to enjoy it.

The only fortune of real value to youth is physical and mental health. Dr. T. H. Clover.

Dr. Clover will write a series of three articles for the "Free Press" concerning the care and feeding of children.

The first for the issue of May 6th; the second May 13th; the third May 20. The first of the series, because of its method of treating disease, is made especially cognizant of the great amount of ill health and suffering that has its origin in infancy and childhood.

The Daughters of Isabella will give a dance at the Essex Hall, Tuesday evening, May 2, 1916. Everybody invited. Admission $1.00. a22-12.
